OFFERTORY ENVELOPES for 2019 are available in the foyer from the welcome bar.

SUMMERFEST '19. 23-25 January. The Adult Connection program is now on the welcome bar. Don't go home today without taking one and thinking of who you may invite to one of the events on the program. Any questions ask Margaret—margaret.icke@menaianglican.org.

We are still on the lookout for leaders. For more info grab a booklet at church, head to the Summerfest website or speak to Connor Davaram. Food Donations: we are in need of some non-perishable foods e.g.: cereals, snacks, chips, biscuits, juice and zipper doopers. These can be left in the office. We will need donations fruit, vegetables or baked goods during the week of Summerfest. Please leave your donations in the office.

DYERS ARE BACK IN TOWN Dave and Kristin and their 4 children are staying in Port Macquarie and will be back in Sydney around 15-16th January and will stay in Illawong until 10 February. Catch up with them at one of our church services and look out for special opportunities to hear their story of the last 4 years in Macedonia. Feel free to invite them for a meal. More information from Bryan Pevely.

THANK YOU .. Francette, Ralph and Alex Esther wish to thank their church family for the loving support, encouraging words and thoughtfulness that has been expressed to them during this difficult time. Your support in prayer continues to strengthen them as they grieve the loss of Natasha.
